

Material given to McKinney Library, Albany Institute of History & Art, by Charles Schade, February 1998 (to join Schade material in MG 66 given in 1996)

CERTIFICATES: Group of twenty-nine diplomas and certificates relating to the lives and careers of William and Charles Schade, including academic, military, professional degrees and certificates of appreciation

DRAWINGS: 249 drawings on tracing paper and linen for 35 building projects designed by William Schade, 1909-41 (see attached list for details); caricature of William Schade bowling, by Tower, ca. 1920; 43 student drawings on paper and tracing paper from Charles Schade's studies at Pratt Institute, 1930-31; two small sets of blueprint drawings (six sheets total) for house designed by Charles Schade for Robert Whitfield, Albany, ca. 1946; eight drawings for a bath house designed by Charles Schade for William Wais, 1961

EPHEMERA: printed notice of William Schade's office moving to the Volckert Building, State Street, Albany, December 1893; specifications cover sheet (empty) for William Schade, printed linen, ca. 1925

LETTER: form letter from Frank Lloyd Wright to William Schade, re: January issue of Architectural Forum, January 10, 1938

MAP: The New York and Albany Railroad, Greene County, NY (river line), 1882 copy made of 1868 survey, ink on linen

NOTEBOOK: with clippings, brochures and other textual material documenting the buildings designed by Charles Schade

PHOTOGRAPHS: George and William Schade in their office at the DeGraff Building, Albany, ca. 1910; Public School 21, Albany, 1925; Architects Club dinner, Pratt Institute, November 6, 1930; Architects Club, Pratt Institute, 1931; Architects Club Baseball Club, Pratt Institute, ca. 1931; Architects spring banquet, Pratt Institute, March 8, 1933; interior of church in McKownville, NY designed by Charles Schade; two color snapshots of buildings designed by William Schade, ca. 1997; group of sixty-one color snapshots of buildings designed by Charles Schade, ca. 1997

PLAN: Trees of Washington Park, Albany, prepared by the Conservation Committee of the Adirondack Mountain Club, Albany Chapter, diazo copy [original map now lost per Charles Schade, 1998]

POSTERS: four posters from celebrations in Albany, 1987-89