Albany Arts Getaway 2005

The Albany Institute of History & Art, Capital Repertory Theatre and the Albany Symphony Orchestra are proud partners with the Albany County Convention & Visitors Bureau in the Albany Arts Getaway! Make a trip to Downtown Albany and receive special Getaway discounts on arts and cultural activities throughout the month of March.

For more destination information, call 800.258.3582
or visit www.albany.org

"Embrace me, my sweet embraceable you Embrace me, you irreplaceable you..." Gershwin

"We loved glamour. We loved looking good. We set the trend and we would not have wanted to look any other way." Mary Wilson

"The Syringa Tree is a revelation! As huge and as grand as an opera but as intimate as a ballet." Oprah Winfrey

Albany · The Capital Advantage · Albany County Convention & Visitors Bureau

Albany Institute of History & Art

Capital Repertory Theatre

Albany Symphony Orchestra

Downtown Albany · Worth Discovering · Since 1609

Arts & Business Council Inc.

The Albany Arts Getaway received funding from the Cultural Tourism Initiative, a project of the Arts & Business Council Inc. and the New York State Council on the Arts.

Media support provided by Times Union · We're Your Source · 98.1 WTRY · 104.9 The Rock

PLEASE CLIP AND REDEEM ON SITE.

Albany Institute of History & Art
125 Washington Avenue • Albany, NY 12210
518.463.4478 • www.albanyinstitute.org

REFLECTIONS: The Mary Wilson Supreme Legacy Collection
March 12 – May 22, 2005
Organized by the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum,this exhibition features more than 50 colorful and richly decorated dresses, along with Supremes concert materials, collectibles and memorabilia.

THE SUPREMES: A Community Album
March 12 – May 22, 2005
This celebration of the Motown girl group includes a selection of posters, photographs, autographs, collectibles, stories and memorabilia from Capital Region residents.

Presented by Citizens Bank, with additional exhibition support provided by GHI and The DR Group.

Albany Institute of History & Art

Two-for-one general admission.
Wed-Sat 10:00 am–5:00 pm; Sun Noon–5:00 pm.
Cannot be combined with other offers. Through March 31.

Capital Repertory Theatre
111 North Pearl Street • Albany, NY 12207
518.445.SHOW (7469) • www.capitalrep.org

The Syringa Tree
March 11 – April 9 (varied times and dates)
This OBIE Award-winner one woman show traces the lives of two South African families, one black, one white, the sacrifices they make and how apartheid affects their lives.

A Friend of a Friend
Saturday, March 19, 11:30 am
Tales of the Underground Railroad in the Capital Region come to life in the stories of some who found freedom and those who risked their lives to help them.

Capital Repertory Theatre

Two-for-one pricing on single tickets.
Subject to availability, limit 4 tickets per person.
Cannot be combined with other offers. Through March 31.

Albany Symphony Orchestra
19 Clinton Avenue • Albany, NY 12207
518.465.4755 • www.albanysymphony.com

How to Be a Cowboy Composer
Sunday, March 6, 3:00 pm
Palace Theatre
Mosey on down to help Cowboy Dave convince Rodeo Rosy that she can write the great western symphony.

Casual Night at the Symphony
Key's American Music Festival Concert
Friday, March 18, 2005, 8:00 pm
Troy Savings Bank Music Hall
Featuring works by Gershwin, Harris, Torke, Gould and Suesse.

Albany Symphony Orchestra

Call for special pricing.
Subject to availability.
Cannot be combined with other offers. Through March 31.

Share the excitement! Bring a friend!