ALBANY INSTITUTE TO HOST AUTHORS RUSSELL DUNN AND BARBARA DELANEY FOR FREE LECTURE EVENT

Thursday, April 3 at 6PM

ALBANY, NY – On Thursday, April 3, join the fun at the Albany Institute of History & Art as local authors Russell Dunn and Barbara Delaney discuss the history of stereography, share their amazing images of the magnificent works of art on the Empire State Plaza, and lead a brief workshop on “free viewing” in 3D. This event will take place at 6PM and is free and open to the public as part of the Institute’s Evenings at the Institute initiative.

Dunn and Delaney are authors of local outdoor guide books including their co-authored Trails with Tales series focusing on history hikes in New York’s Capital and Adirondack regions, Trails with Tales: History Hikes through the Capital Region, Saratoga, Berkshires, Catskills & Hudson Valley (2006) and Adirondack Trails with Tales: History Hikes through the Adirondack Park with the Lake George, Lake Champlain & Mohawk Valley Regions (2009). Dunn has authored several guides to waterfalls, including Catskill Region Waterfall Guide (2004) and Hudson Valley Waterfall Guide: From Saratoga and the Capital Region to the Highlands and Palisades (2005). Delaney is also the author of Finding Griffin: An Adirondack Novel (2012) that weaves history and mystery into the thick woods of the Adirondacks.

The Albany Institute of History & Art is now open for free on Thursday evenings from 5PM-8PM. These extended hours, which started as a trial this past fall, offer the public the opportunity to visit the museum after work and explore the exhibitions, shop at the museum shop, and participate in special activities. Special activities already planned for this spring include live readings of letters in the museum’s collection, art making in the galleries and art studio, guided gallery tours, author events, and library open house events.

The Albany Institute has scheduled special activities for some of the upcoming free Evenings at the Institute. The activities are listed below:

❖ April 10, 2014 Guided Gallery Tours

Explore the current exhibitions, including GE Presents: The Mystery of the Albany Mummies, with museum docents as your guide!

❖ April 17, 2014 Voices of the Past: Live Readings of Pruyn Family Letters

The Albany Institute's Library is rich with stories of the past. Join us as we share some of those stories by reading letters from the collection. This Thursday, we will read the December 29, 1864 letter from Robert Hewson Pruyn home to his wife. Pruyn was an Albanian who was appointed the second U.S. minister to Japan by Abraham Lincoln and he served there from 1862-1865.

❖ April 24, 2014 Art on Thursday Night: Art for Arbor Day

Join us in the studio for drawing, painting, and collage inspired by trees created by Hudson River School artists.
