

ALBANY INSTITUTE OF HISTORY & ART

125 Washington Avenue Albany, NY 12210
T: (518) 463-4478; F: (518) 462-1522
www.albanyinstitute.org

CALENDAR

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 10, 2009

Note: All programs and times are subject to change.

CONTACT: Steve Ricci (518) 463-4478, ext. 467

riccis@albanyinstitute.org

Courtney Troeger (518) 463-4478, ext. 420

troegerc@albanyinstitute.org

Exhibits, programs, and events at the Albany Institute of History & Art: March 1–June 30, 2009

NOW SHOWING

HUDSON RIVER PANORAMA: 400 YEARS OF HISTORY, ART, AND CULTURE FEBRUARY 7, 2009—JANUARY 10, 2010

The mighty Hudson River will be the museum's main focus in 2009 as the Albany Institute of History & Art unveils Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Art, and Culture.

Specifically conceived to coincide with the Hudson-Fulton-Champlain Quadricentennial—an international celebration stretching from New York City to Quebec Province—the exhibition will explore and narrate the influential force that the Hudson has had on our region, including settlement, agricultural cultivation, industrial growth, tourism, and the cultural prominence of its talented and creative artists, writers, architects, and landscape gardeners. More than 200 historical artifacts, works of art, and rare archival documents from the collections of the Albany Institute and selected public and private collections will help tell the many stories of the river. For more than three years, the Albany Institute has been researching topics related to the Hudson River in preparation for the exhibition and accompanying educational programs. The process has been a journey of exploration and discovery, unearthing accounts of the people and events that have shaped the history of the Hudson Valley.

With a topic as vast and wide-ranging as the Hudson River, selecting key events, people, innovations, and ideas to relate broader narratives of the river has been both crucial and challenging. The exhibition will be divided into five themed sections: Community and Settlement; Natural History and Environment; Transportation; Trade, Commerce, and Industry; Culture and Symbol. Other galleries will offer visitors a chance to discover the flora and fauna of the Hudson River Valley and compare historic and contemporary images that reveal how the human presence has shaped and changed the appearance of the river over the last 200 years. The exhibition is also designed to reveal interconnections among the various topics, with occasional surprises and unexpected associations.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN: THE ALBANY CONNECTION FEBRUARY 12—MAY 17, 2009

"...You have generously tendered me the united support of the great Empire State," President-elect Abraham Lincoln told the New York Legislature on February 18, 1861. Later that day, he was greeted by a boisterous Albany crowd who cheered him en route to his inauguration in Washington, D.C., a route that would be retraced by his funeral procession four years later.

As America celebrates the 200th anniversary of Lincoln's birth in 2009, the Albany Institute of History & Art is displaying a small exhibition of photographs, drawings, and documents related to the life of our 16th president. Join us for a look at the artistic expressions of the Albany-area people whose lives were touched by The Great Emancipator.

A PRIMROSE WAY: THE ART OF WILL H. LOW

CLOSE DATE EXTENDED INDEFINITELY

Albany's own Will H. Low was a friend and contemporary of another well-known Albany painter, Walter Launt Palmer, and the Scottish writer Robert Louis Stevenson. One of the leading decorative artists of his generation, Low's many prestigious commissions included murals for the Plaza Hotel, ceiling paintings for the Waldorf Hotel in New York City, and murals in the New York Education Building and the Legislative Library of the New York State Capitol in Albany. This eclectic exhibition of Low's work includes paintings, drawings, prints, photographs, illustrations, and books related to his accomplished life and career.

---

UPCOMING EXHIBITS

HUDSON VALLEY: SPANNING THE BANKS

BY HARRY WILKS

MARCH 14–JUNE 7, 2009

For 25 years, New York photographer Harry Wilks has been looking at this world from different viewpoints; from the roofs of New York's skyscrapers, from the perspective of a concrete barrier, and the vantage point of a highway guardrail. Using a Widelux swing-lens camera, Wilks captures panoramic slices of the Hudson River Valley, from New York City to the Hudson Highlands, where mundane structures along roadways, industrial wastelands, and abandoned gardens assume sculptural properties. The Widelux camera, which pans across 140 degrees of landscape, can create visual distortions, bend objects that are rigidly straight, and shape an abstracted view of reality, results that Wilks uses to his advantage. In the 21 photographs included in this exhibition, the bold forms of bridges, fences, and handrails unite the built environment with the fluid smoothness of the Hudson River, a rounded mountain, or a patch of grass. "I want to show people things they can't see with their own eye," Wilks observes. A native of New York City, Wilks received his B.A. in art and design from City College of New York in 1967. He's been described as an urban photographer who focuses his camera on unexpected scenes of his home city and the Hudson River Valley. His work has been shown in numerous exhibitions and added to museum and corporate collections such as the Brooklyn Museum, the George Eastman House, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the Hallmark collection.

LIFE ALONG THE HUDSON: PHOTOGRAPHS BY JOSEPH SQUILLANTE

JUNE 20–OCTOBER 4, 2009

Joseph Squillante has spent the last three decades traveling the entire length of the Hudson. Like the Hudson River landscape painters before him, some of his photographs capture the beauty and romantic quality of the river, while others focus on people who live and work along its shores, including farmers, fisherman, and biologists. Just as the photographs of the Adirondacks by Seneca Ray Stoddard's in the late 1800s aided in the designation of the area as a state park, Squillante's photographs of the Hudson River raise the public awareness of the river's importance. His commitment to helping transform the Hudson into a cleaner, and more esteemed natural resource has earned him the respect of the Hudson River community. He has worked closely with the Riverkeeper headed by Robert Kennedy, Jr.; the Clearwater, founded by Pete Seeger; and Scenic Hudson, founded in 1963 to help protect the Hudson River Valley. The exhibition will include 30 black-and-white images.

---

CHANGING EXHIBITIONS

THE LANDSCAPE THAT DEFINED AMERICA: THE HUDSON RIVER SCHOOL NOW ON VIEW

Among the highlights of the museum's exhibition collections are its holdings related to the 19th-century American landscape tradition known today as the Hudson River School. Located in the heart of the Hudson Valley, the full collection includes more than 60 paintings along with drawings and sketchbooks, scrapbooks, letters, paint boxes, and photographs related to the lives and careers of first- and second-generation Hudson River School artists, including artists such as Thomas Cole, Asher B. Durand, Jasper Cropsey, James Hart, William Hart, John Kensett, Homer D. Martin, David Johnson, John Casilear and George Inness. In conjunction with the upcoming exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Art, and Culture, some paintings by Hudson River School artists will be on view in the Lansing Gallery, while others will be incorporated into the Hudson River exhibit.

---

EVENTS AND FAMILY PROGRAMS

MARCH

Friday, March 13, 1:30–4:30 pm

FAMILY PROGRAMS: HOMESCHOOL PROGRAM

Hudson 400 Clay Characters

Learn about stories and legends from objects on view in the exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Art, and Culture. In the studio, the instructor will place emphasis on hand-building techniques and design to create your favorite characters. Fee: $15 for non-members, $10 for members, includes museum admission and art materials. Registration is required and payment is due at the time of registration. ASL interpretation is offered for this program. Age requirement is 8 years and older. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, March 14, Opening

Hudson Valley: Spanning the Banks, by Harry Wilks

For 25 years, New York photographer Harry Wilks has been looking at this world from different viewpoints; from the roofs of New York's skyscrapers, from the perspective of a concrete barrier, and the vantage point of a highway guardrail. Using a Widelux swing-lens camera, Wilks captures panoramic slices of the Hudson River Valley, from New York City to the Hudson Highlands, where mundane structures along roadways, industrial wastelands, and abandoned gardens assume sculptural properties. The exhibition will be on display in the Square and Round Galleries on the museum's third floor. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Saturday, March 14, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Art for All

Adults and children of all ages are welcome to drop in at the Albany Institute on select Saturdays and Sundays to explore history and art through creativity. Art Adventures begin in the galleries and are followed by an art-making activity in the studio. Free with museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, March 14, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, March 15, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Girl Scout Badge Program, Quadricentennial Badge

The year 2009 represents an extraordinary opportunity to receive a once-in-a-lifetime badge celebrating 400 years of Henry Hudson's exploration of the river that bears his name. Fee: $24, includes museum admission, materials, and badge. Two free chaperones per troop; adult admission fee of $10 each for extra chaperones. Registration is required. To enroll please contact the Girl Scouts of Northeastern NY, 1-888-4GSNENY, or (518) 489-8110 for more information.

Sunday, March 15, 2:00 pm

Lecture—Daniel Bernard Roumain, *Composing for the River: Soundtrack for a Shared Dream

Daniel Bernard Roumain was one of three diverse contemporary composer/musicians commissioned by the Empire State Plaza Performing Arts Center to create new music to honor the beauty of the Hudson River Valley and celebrate its rich cultural history. An innovative composer, performer, violinist, and band leader, Haitian-American artist, Roumain melds his classical music roots with his own cultural references and vibrant musical imagination. As a composer, his works range from orchestral scores and chamber pieces to music for film, the theater, modern dance, and electronica. A native of Margate, Florida, Roumain studied music as an undergraduate at Vanderbilt University's Blair School of Music, completing his masters and doctoral work at the University of Michigan under the tutelage of Pulitzer Prize-winning composer William Bolcom. The lecture is free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, March 15, 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Saturday, March 21, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Art for All

Adults and children of all ages are welcome to drop in at the Albany Institute on select Saturdays and Sundays to explore history and art through creativity.

Art Adventures begin in the galleries and are followed by an art-making activity in the studio. Free with museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, March 21, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, March 22, 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, March 22, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Girl Scout Badge Program, Art in 3D

Working within a museum setting, Junior Girl Scouts will learn the many ways artists work and are inspired. Program includes tour of Hudson River Panorama exhibit and other collections. Participants receive an Art in 3D Badge, a certificate of art appreciation from the Albany Institute, and a free family pass. Registration required through Girl Scouts of Northeastern New York, 1-888-4GSNENY, or (518) 489-8110. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, March 28, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, March 29, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Hudson 400 Family Festival

Celebrate the Hudson River's birthday with docent-led tours of the exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Art, and Culture; art-making activities in the Children's Studio, and a performance by storyteller Jonathan Kruk and folk balladeer Rich Bala, who will perform tunes and tales illustrating the Hudson's many-faceted role in forging our nation. Art-making activities in the Children's Studio will include Gyotaku fish prints, a Japanese art form that teaches participants about fresh water fish by using realistic fish replicas made of rubber, rolling the replica with block printing ink and applying it to cloth and paper. The Hudson 400 Family Festival is free with regular museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Sunday, March 29, 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

APRIL

Friday, April 3, 6:00 pm

Lecture—John Cronin, *The Hudson and Its Watershed

The director of the Beacon Institute—a science, policy, and education research center—John Cronin is also the co-chair of the Environmental Consortium of Hudson Valley Colleges and Universities. He lectures on the environment at higher education institutions nationwide. He is a Shannon Fellow with the International Thomas Merton Society, at Bellarmine University, where his topic of study is the Ecological Theology of Thomas Merton. He is also an instructor at Bard College's Lifetime Learning Institute. The lecture is free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Friday, April 3, 6:00 pm

Gallery Talk—Photographer Harry Wilks

For 25 years, New York photographer Harry Wilks has been looking at this world from different viewpoints; from the roofs of New York's skyscrapers, from the perspective of a concrete barrier, and the vantage point of a highway guardrail. Using a Widelux swing-lens camera, Wilks captures panoramic slices of the Hudson River Valley, from New York City to the Hudson Highlands, where mundane structures along roadways, industrial wastelands, and abandoned gardens assume sculptural properties. Mr. Wilks will host a gallery talk about his current exhibit, Hudson Valley: Spanning the Banks, which is on view from March 14 through June 7, 2009. The talk is free and open to the public. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Saturday, April 4, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, April 5, 2:00 pm

Lecture—Tom Lake, *The Ancestral Lure of the Hudson Estuary

Tom Lake is an archaeologist who teaches anthropology at SUNY Dutchess Community College in Poughkeepsie. He also works for the NYS Department of Environmental Conservation's Hudson River Estuary Program as its Estuary Naturalist, where he conducts wildlife monitoring, research, education, and edits the Hudson River Almanac, a natural-history journal now in its 16th year. The lecture is free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, April 5, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Girl Scout Badge Program, Art in 3D

Working within a museum setting, Junior Girl Scouts will learn the many ways artists work and are inspired. Program includes tour of Hudson River Panorama exhibit and other collections. Participants receive an Art in 3D Badge, a certificate of art appreciation from the Albany Institute, and a free family pass. Registration required through Girl Scouts of Northeastern New York, 1-888-4GSNENY, or (518) 489-8110. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Sunday, April 5, 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Saturday, April 11, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Art for All

Adults and children of all ages are welcome to drop in at the Albany Institute on select Saturdays and Sundays to explore history and art through creativity. Art Adventures begin in the galleries and are followed by an art-making activity in the studio. Free with museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, April 11, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Weds., Thurs., Fri., April 15, 16, 17: 9:00 am–noon (6-8 years old), 1:00–4:00 pm (9-13 years old)

FAMILY PROGRAMS: Vacation Art Break

During school vacation week, children's art workshops will be offered each day from 9 am to noon for 6- to 8-year-olds and from 1 to 4 pm for 9- to 13-year-olds. Classes frequently incorporate gallery visits to instill both content and context to lessons. Fee: $15 for members, $20 for nonmembers. Registration required. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, April 18, 2:00 and 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, April 19, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Art for All

Adults and children of all ages are welcome to drop in at the Albany Institute on select Saturdays and Sundays to explore history and art through creativity. Art Adventures begin in the galleries and are followed by an art-making activity in the studio. Free with museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Sunday, April 19, 2:00 and 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Thursday, April 23, 1:30–4:30 pm

FAMILY PROGRAMS: HOMESCHOOL PROGRAM

Hudson 400

Celebrate Earth Day and be earth-friendly in this class that explores recycled materials to create art. Fee: $15 for non-members, $10 for members, includes museum admission and art materials. Registration is required and payment is due at the time of registration. ASL interpretation is offered for this program. Age requirement is 8 years and older. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, April 25, 9 am—noon, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Girl Scout Badge Program, Quadricentennial Badge

The year 2009 represents an extraordinary opportunity to receive a once-in-a-lifetime badge celebrating 400 years of Henry Hudson's exploration of the river that bears his name. Fee: $24, includes museum admission, materials, and badge. Two free chaperones per troop; adult admission fee of $10 each for extra chaperones. Registration is required. To enroll please contact the Girl Scouts of Northeastern NY, 1-888-4GSNENY, or (518) 489-8110 for more information.

Saturday, April 25, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, April 26, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Art for All

Adults and children of all ages are welcome to drop in at the Albany Institute on select Saturdays and Sundays to explore history and art through creativity. Art Adventures begin in the galleries and are followed by an art-making activity in the studio. Free with museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Sunday, April 26, 2:00 pm

Lecture—Len Tantillo, *Painting the Valley: History and Process

Artist Len Tantillo was born and raised in upstate New York, and attended Rhode Island School of Design. In 1980, Tantillo was commissioned to depict a series of 19th-century structures from archeological artifacts and historic documents. Similar projects followed, many of which were located along the banks of the Hudson River near Albany. In 1984, Tantillo left commercial art and began the full-time pursuit of fine art. He has spent the last 25 years creating numerous historical and marine paintings, which have continued to draw a wide audience. Tantillo's work clearly shows the combined influence of the luminists of the 19th century and the great marine artists of the past. The blending of his visual story-telling ability and a wonderful sense of adventure and excitement is evident in all of his paintings. Detailed observations are translated directly onto canvas and the images are brought to life with his ability to create a magical sense of time and place. The lecture is free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, April 26, 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

MAY

Friday, May 1, 2009—6:00 pm

Lecture—Connie Brown, The Hudson and Its Watershed: The Making of a Map

The Hudson and Its Watershed (left) is a definitive modern map created by Connie Brown and Duncan Milne of Redstone Studios for the Beacon Institute for Rivers and Estuaries. The map commemorates the Hudson River and its watershed and was created to encourage a sense of environmental, cultural, and historical stewardship of the entire watershed. Brown makes maps on canvas, using acrylic wash and pencil or pen. Her maps serve to celebrate or commemorate a place and are intended to be beautiful and geographically correct. The lecture is free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Saturday, May 2, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Art for All

Adults and children of all ages are welcome to drop in at the Albany Institute on select Saturdays and Sundays to explore history and art through creativity. Art Adventures begin in the galleries and are followed by an art-making activity in the studio. Free with museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, May 2, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, May 3, 2:00 pm

Book Signing and Lecture—T.J. Stiles, The First Tycoon: The Epic Life of Cornelius Vanderbilt

T.J. Stiles has held a Gilder Lehrman Fellowship in American History at the New York Public Library, taught at Columbia University, and served as advisor for the PBS series, The American Experience. His book Jesse James: The Last Rebel of the Civil War, won the Ambassador Book Award and the Peter Seaborg Award for Civil War Scholarship, and was a New York Times Notable Book of the Year. He lives in San Francisco. His latest book, The First Tycoon: The Epic Life of Cornelius Vanderbilt, will be published in April 2009 by Alfred A. Knopf. The lecture and book signing are free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, May 3, 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Saturday, May 9, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Art for All

Adults and children of all ages are welcome to drop in at the Albany Institute on select Saturdays and Sundays to explore history and art through creativity. Art Adventures begin in the galleries and are followed by an art-making activity in the studio. Free with museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, May 9, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, May 10, 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Friday, May 15, 1:30–4:30 pm

FAMILY PROGRAMS: HOMESCHOOL PROGRAM—Egyptian Animals

Animals of all kinds were important to ancient Egyptians. The Egyptians understood the animals' characteristics and admired them. Learn about these amazing creatures and choose an animal to sketch, draw, and print on papyrus. Fee: $15 for non-members, $10 for members, includes museum admission and art materials. Registration is required and payment is due at the time of registration. ASL interpretation is offered for this program. Age requirement is 8 years and older. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Saturday, May 16, 9 am—noon, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Girl Scout Badge Program, Quadracentennial Badge

The year 2009 represents an extraordinary opportunity to receive a once-in-a-lifetime badge celebrating 400 years of Henry Hudson's exploration of the river that bears his name. Fee: $24, includes museum admission, materials, and badge. Two free chaperones per troop; adult admission fee of $10 each for extra chaperones. Registration is required. To enroll please contact the Girl Scouts of Northeastern NY, 1-888-4GSNENY, or (518) 489-8110 for more information.

Saturday, May 16, 2:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, May 17, 2009, 2:00 pm

Lecture—Art Cohn, *What Lies Beneath: The Archaeological Legacy of Lake Champlain and the Hudson River

Art Cohn is the co-founder and Executive Director of the Lake Champlain Maritime Museum at Basin Harbor Vermont. A professional diver and nautical archaeologist, Cohn is also on the adjunct faculty of the University of Vermont and the Institute of Nautical Archaeology at Texas A&M University. He has served as coordinator of the State of Vermont's Underwater Historic Preserve Program since 1985. He led the 10-year Lake Survey project, which systematically mapped the Lake Champlain's lake floor, finding more than 70 previously undiscovered shipwrecks. A 2000 and 2001 United States delegate to the United Nations Educational, Science, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) Conference on the protection of Underwater Cultural Heritage in Paris, Cohn is the author of many publications, including his latest, Lake Champlain's Sailing Canal Boats: An Illustrated Journey from Burlington Bay to the Hudson River. The lecture is free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, May 17, 1:00–4:00 pm

FAMILY PROGRAM: Art for All

Adults and children of all ages are welcome to drop in at the Albany Institute on select Saturdays and Sundays to explore history and art through creativity. Art Adventures begin in the galleries and are followed by an art-making activity in the studio. Free with museum admission. For information, contact Barbara Collins, education coordinator, at (518) 463-4478, ext. 405, collinsb@albanyinstitute.org.

Sunday, May 17, 3:00 pm

GALLERY TALK

Enjoy a docent-lead tour of the Albany Institute's current exhibits and the new exhibit, Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Culture, and Art. Free with museum admission. Times vary by date. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Thursday, May 28, 12:30 pm

Book Signing—Edward F. Levine, author, *The Hudson-Fulton Celebration of 1909

The Hudson-Fulton Celebration of 1909 honored the tercentennial of Henry Hudson's great find for the Dutch and the centennial of Robert Fulton's steamboat. These events anchored settlements along the Hudson River Valley and helped to define this famous region. The celebration, which coincided with the heyday of the penny postcard, was a multi-week, cross-state parade and party. Among its many vintage images, Hudson-Fulton Celebration of 1909 features unique postcards from the magnificent event by blockbuster artist Bernhardt Wall, renowned publisher Raphael Tuck, and an official souvenir series from the Redfield Brothers. Edward F. Levine began collecting vintage postcards 40 years ago. Specializing in exposition cards, he has assembled one of the largest groupings of Hudson-Fulton Celebration postcards. The book signing is free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, May 31, 2:00 pm

Lecture and Book Signing—Jeremy D'Entremont, author: *Lighthouses and Keepers of the Hudson River

Jeremy D'Entremont, a historian for the American Lighthouse Foundation and the founder of Friends of Portsmouth Harbor Lighthouse, has been writing about and photographing lighthouses since the mid-1980s. His website, "New England Lighthouses: A Virtual Guide," was launched in 1997 and he has written several books on lighthouse history, including The Lighthouses of Connecticut, The Lighthouses of Rhode Island, The Lighthouses of Massachusetts, The Lighthouses of Maine, The Lighthouse Handbook: New England, and The Lighthouse Handbook: Hudson River and New York Harbor. D'Entremont's photographs have appeared in many publications, including Offshore, Soundings, and Captain's Guide. The lecture and book signing are free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Friday, June 5, 6:00 pm

Lecture and Art-Making—Anne Diggory, artist: *Artistic License and Artistic Truth

The "Endless Hudson River Landscape," an interactive art project now on display at the Albany Institute of History & Art, is a multi-paneled view where the river once again goes on forever. The basis for the panorama was created by Saratoga Springs-based landscape artist Anne Diggory, who used images from the work of Hudson River School painters in the Institute's collection, as well as her own work, to create the panels on which members of the public have added their own images. Join the artist on Friday, June 5, for a talk about the "artistic license" used in her own work and in the Hudson River School paintings in the current exhibition. She will also discuss the interactive project and will encourage artistic contributions to the panels before and after the talk. The lecture and art-making are free and open to the public. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Friday, June 12, 6:30–10:30 pm

Museum Gala 2009

Save the date for the Albany Institute of History & Art's 2009 Museum Gala on Friday, June 12, from 6:30 to 10:30 pm. This year's Museum Gala honoring Commissioner John C. Egan, artist Len Tantillo, and philanthropists Spencer and Patricia Standish, will be held at the Albany Institute of History & Art, 125 Washington Avenue. In addition to an opportunity to support one of our region's most venerable institutions, this year's gala attendees will embark upon a journey through four centuries of Hudson Valley culture, as we continue our yearlong celebration of Hudson River Panorama: 400 Years of History, Art, and Culture. Guests will delight in the cuisine and entertainment of centuries past and present in a variety of distinctive settings. The evening's specially crafted menu will feature elegant gourmet stations, champagne, and fine wine. For more information, please contact Jeannie Garber Patz, (518) 463-4478, ext. 414, patzj@albanyinstitute.org.

Sunday, June 14, 2:00 pm

Lecture and Performance—Jerry Silverman, author and folksinger: *New York Sings

Jerry Silverman is one of America's outstanding folksingers, guitar teachers, and most prolific authors of music books. He has published over 200 books, which have sold in the millions, including folk song collections, anthologies, and method books for guitar, banjo, and fiddle. He has taught hundreds of people, young and old, the joys of making music on the guitar and has performed in folksong concerts at schools, universities, and concert halls in the U.S. and abroad. The lecture and performance are free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Sunday, June 14, 3:00 pm

Book Signing—Hudson Talbott, author and illustrator: *River of Dreams: The Story of the Hudson River

Author and illustrator Hudson Talbott will visit the Albany Institute's Hudson 400 Museum Shop to sign copies of his recent children's book, River of Dreams: The Story of the Hudson River (Putnam, 2009). This gorgeously illustrated tribute to America's first superhighway is a wonderful introduction to the Hudson River's strategic, economic, and cultural significance. Through his stunning paintings and intriguing text, Talbott celebrates this magnificent natural treasure and all the dreamers who have been affected by its power and beauty. The author of more than a dozen books for young readers, Hudson Talbott is on the board of the Thomas Cole House National Historic Site. The book signing is free and open to the public. Museum admission is not included. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

Saturday, June 20, Opening

Life Along the Hudson: Photographs by Joseph Squillante

Joseph Squillante has spent the last three decades traveling the entire length of the Hudson. Like the Hudson River landscape painters before him, some of his photographs capture the beauty and romantic quality of the river, while others focus on people who live and work along its shores, including farmers, fisherman, and biologists. Just as the photographs of the Adirondacks by Seneca Ray Stoddard's in the late 1800s aided in the designation of the area as a state park, Squillante's photographs of the Hudson River raise the public awareness of the river's importance. The exhibition will include 30 black-and-white images. Call (518) 463-4478 for information.

###

Founded in 1791, the Albany Institute of History & Art (AIHA) is a 501(c) 3 cultural and educational institution dedicated to public service. As a museum, its mission is to collect, preserve and interpret the art, history and culture of Albany and the upper Hudson Valley region from the 17th century to the present. AIHA acquires collections, conducts research, produces publications, and offers a wide range of exhibitions, educational and public programs that appeal to diverse audiences ranging from pre-K to senior citizens. The museum is open year round, Wednesday-Sunday. Admission is free to members and children under 6, $8 for adults, $6 for seniors and students and $4 for children ages 6-12. The Albany Institute of History & Art is accredited by the American Association of Museums and chartered by the New York State Department of Education.