FREE AND FREEZY FRIDAYS AT THE ALBANY INSTITUTE

ALBANY, NEW YORK— This August, the Albany Institute of History & Art is proud to present Free & Freezy Fridays! Every Friday in August, the Albany Institute is offering free admission to all visitors during regular museum hours (10:00 am–5:00 pm), as well as some “Free & Freezy” activities.

From 11:00 am until 2:00 pm you can stop by the Institute on your lunch break to enjoy a freeze pop in our Sculpture Garden. The treats are free for Albany Institute members when they present their membership card, and will be sold 2 for $1.00 for non-members. While you are outside, you can also peruse the sidewalk sale hosted by our Museum Shop, weather permitting (time subject to change).

Fridays will also feature drop-in docent tours. Between 11:00 am and 3:00 pm docents will be wandering through the Albany Institute galleries, available to answer questions and provide brief tours of the current exhibitions, including the 2011 Exhibition by Artists of the Mohawk-Hudson Region.
