Related Material

[This section describes other collections that have a common provenance, creator or subject matter. Sometimes it is used to describe the fact that parts of a collection have been transferred to other custodial units with the organization, which are listed in the Separated Materials sub-section below. For example, photographs have been transferred to the photo collection or books have been transferred to the general collection.]

Separated Materials

[List any materials here that have been separated out from the main body of records, including the call number.]

Other Finding Aids

[This would be for additional guides to the same collection. These other access tools would describe all or parts of the collection. For example, there might be a published edition of the inventory or the materials may have come to the repository with some sort of inventory prepared by the creator. File plans are formal examples of such finding aids (with a separate element all their own) that sometimes accompany organizational needs.]

Detailed Description of the Records/Papers/Collection

[We usually do not need to catalog to the item level. Assign item numbers only when necessary. Grid lines in table will not show when printed.]
