Collection Summary

Collection Title: The Pruyn Family Papers

Call Number: JQ 84-08

Creators: Justine Pruyn Trowbridge, Erving Pruyn, John V.L. Pruyn Jr., and John V.L. Pruyn Sr.

Inclusive Dates: 1679-1978

Bulk Dates: 1770-1865; 1950-1968

Abstract: The Pruyn Family Papers contains documents relating to three consecutive generations of the John Pruyn Family, along with genealogies and personal papers of more distant family relations. An autograph collection of presidents, statesmen, and local historic figures is included. The ownership of 43-45 North Pearl Street is documented from the first sale in 1679 to the last in 1968. The estates of Eleanor Erving, Justine Bayard Erving and Van Rensselaer Pruyn are also documented.

Quantity: 7 boxes, 27.5 linear inches, + one oversize box

Administrative Information

Custodial History: The bulk of the collection comes from the gift of Mrs. Justine Pruyn Trowbridge of Brattleboro, VT in September 1985. It may have been a gift of the estate. Some items may have come from other members of the Pruyn family, however, those records are not documented. There is an appraisal on record, done in 1985 by the Bryn Mawr Bookshop. Most of the books that have been removed from the collection into special collections, or the general collection were accessioned in 1997.

History of the Pruyn Family

The Pruyn family of Albany is one of the oldest and most esteemed families in the area. The family is of a Holland-Dutch background and was one of the original Dutch families in the area. One of the earliest ancestors of the Pruyns was Casparus Pruyn. He was born in Albany in 1734. His son, David Pruyn (1771-1843) married Hibertje Lansing (1773-1855) the daughter of Christopher Lansing (1743-1819), thus establishing the family name of Hibertje and the connection to the Lansing family. David and Hibertje had three children, Catherine (1803-1885), Lansing (1805-1877) and John Van Schaick Lansing Pruyn (1811-1877). At the time of John's birth, the Pruyns had resided in Albany for over two centuries.

John V.L. Pruyn, as he was known, grew up in the Dutch Reformed Church of Albany. Later, he joined the Protestant Episcopal Church, where he served as vestryman of St. Peter's Church. John attended the Albany Academy in 1824. He had degrees from Rutgers College in 1835, Union College in 1845 and the University of Rochester in 1852. He became a lawyer in 1832. In 1833, he entered a partnership with Henry Martin. Later, he formed a partnership with John H. Reynolds. He served as State Senator in 1861, and in the United States Congress in 1863-65 and in 1867-69 terms. Among his other appointments, he was a Regent of the State University of New York, Chancellor of the same, Director and Vice President of the Albany City Bank, member of such clubs as the New York and Wisconsin Historical Societies, the Union and Century Clubs and President of the St. Stephen's College in Annandale, New York, a training school for the Protestant Episcopal Church. In 1831, he became a member of the Albany Institute. He became president of the Institute in 1857 and served until his death in 1877. He was also Director of the Mohawk and Hudson River Railroad, and one of the original Capitol Commissioners of the New York Central Railroad. It was he who laid the first stone of that railroad in 1869. He died in Clifton Springs, New York, following a long illness.

John was married twice in his life. His first wife was the niece of Erastus Corning, Harriet Corning Turner (1822-1859). Harriet gave birth to six children, of which, only two lived into adulthood. The first child, Erastus Corning Pruyn (1841-1881) died of meningitis on the Canary Islands. The second child, Harriet Catherine died as a child of scarlet fever. The third child and fourth, May Weld, and Harriet Corning, both died as babies. The fifth child was a stillborn male. The sixth child was John V.L. Pruyn Jr. Harriet died shortly after giving birth to him.

John's second wife was Anna Fen Parker (1840-1909). She gave birth to two children, both girls. The first, Harriet Langdon Pruyn (1868-1939) married into the Rice family. The second daughter, Huybertie Lansing Pruyn (1873-1964) married into the Hamlin family.

John Van Schaick Lansing Pruyn Jr. (1859-1904) became a lawyer like his father. He attended Miss Gaylord's school in Catskill, St. Paul's School in Concord, NH, as well as Union College where he graduated in 1880 or 1881. He later attended Albany Law School. Like his father, John was also an active member of the Albany community. He was an active member of the Fort Orange Club and the Metropolitan Club in New York City. He was Alderman at Large of Albany in 1887-88. He was Vice President of the St. Stephen's College in Barrytown. He was a member of the Holland Society and the St. Nicholas Society. During the last years of his life, he lived in New York City where he was the Chairman of the Boer Relief Fund, and Vice President of the Netherlands

Chamber of Commerce. John died in New York City of pneumonia at age 46. He is buried in the Albany Rural Cemetery.

He married Cornelia Van Rensselaer Erving (1865-1931) in 1895. They had three children, all males. The first, John V.L. Pruyn the 3rd died after less than one year of age. The second son, Erving Pruyn was born in 1897. Erving married Carolyn Prentice in 1926. The youngest was Hendrik Pruyn (1900-1969). He later changed his name to Van Rensselaer Pruyn.

Of further note, are some cousins and aunts and uncles of the two Johns mentioned above. First, Justine Bayard Erving (1881-1955) was the sister of Cornelia V.R. Erving, sister-in-law to John V.L. Pruyn Jr. and aunt to Erving Pruyn.

Second, Robert H. Pruyn and Augustus Pruyn are the second cousins of John V.L. Pruyn Jr. Robert C. Pruyn and Charles Lansing Pruyn are the second cousins once removed of John V.L. Pruyn Jr.

Scope and Contents of the Records

The Collection covers the time period from 1679 up until 1978, with most of the material falling into two time periods, 1770-1865, and 1950-1968. The collection covers several generations of the John V.L. Pruyn Family. John Sr. and his son John Jr. each have a series. John's son, Erving Pruyn is the creator of series 5 and parts of series 6. He was the executor of his aunt Justine Erving's estate. The collection contains correspondence, personal journals, passports, estate papers, bank statements, wills, leases, photographs, bookplates, and many books. The majority of the books have been removed to special collections or the general collection, see the explanation in Related Materials below. The books are generally family histories, or travel books acquired by various Pruyn relatives over the years. Several bibles are also included that detail some of the Pruyn genealogy. Some material, such as the bibles, a folder in series 3 is written in Dutch. The collection also contains an autograph collection of presidential signatures and historic figures. These signatures are found on personal correspondence and certificates collected by a member of the Pruyn family over the course of many years. The Van Rensselaer Pruyn Estate Papers found in Series 3 have restricted access because of sensitive personal information revealed in them. The oversize box contains the collection of photographs of the Pruyn family, large certificates, and the bookplates of John V.L. Pruyn Sr. The journals of John Jr., and his mother Harriet, are bound in book form. Three books are still part of the collection, one in Series 2, the others in series 3. The genealogies in this collection appear to have been started during the lifetime of John Jr. They trace back the ancestry of his family, and that of his wife's Cornelia Van Rensselaer Erving Pruyn.

Organization of the Records

The Collection is organized into six series.

The first series, The John V.L. Pruyn Sr. Papers, consist of correspondence, journals, and personal papers of John Sr., his wives, and acquaintances. All of the items in this series relate to this first generation of the Pruyns. It contains letters to and from John V.L. Pruyn Sr. to various friends and family members. The series also contains passports of John and his second wife Anna. Four personal journals belonging to his first wife, Harriet, are also in this series. John V.L. Pruyn's bookplates are included in this series.

The second series, The John V.L. Pruyn Jr. Papers, consists of journals and other documents relating to the life of John Jr. and his wife. It consists of John's personal journals, his obituaries and memory book, clippings of his hair, taken upon his death, and ancestral charts filled out by and for John and his wife Cornelia.

The third series, Related Family Papers and Genealogy, consists of genealogies of different families related to the Pruyns through marriage or blood, as well as genealogies of the Pruyn family. It contains smaller sets of personal papers from different relatives of John Sr. and John Jr. Erving Pruyn, Van Rensselaer Pruyn, David Pruyn, and Casparus Pruyn are represented. Additionally, this series also contains miscellaneous family photographs and postcards made by Augustus Pruyn.

The fourth series, the Autograph Collection, is a group of documents collected by a member of the Pruyn family that are signed by historic New Yorkers and Americans. They are a separate collection because the dates of the documents span both lifetimes of John Sr. and John Jr. Also, none of the documents are addressed to members of the Pruyn family. The collection includes signatures of John Hancock, Henry Clay, Martin Van Buren, James Buchanan, James K. Polk, Theodore Roosevelt, Stephen Van Rensselaer and Harmanus Bleeker.

The fifth series, the Estate of Justine Bayard Erving Papers, consists of the papers accumulated by Erving Pruyn in settling the estate of his aunt. Justine Bayard Erving was a relative on his mother's side of the family. The papers contain bank statements and cancelled checks of the estate account, as well as inventories of the estate. Included is a folder of the Eleanor C. Erving Estate Papers. Eleanor was Justine's sister who had died several years before Justine herself. At the time of Justine's death, she had been dealing with the estate of her sister. Upon Justine's death, Erving became executor of both of their estates. Finally, a biography of Justine, written at the time of her death, and copies of paintings willed to the Frick Library are included in this series.

The sixth and last series, the North Pearl Street Residence Papers, consists of deeds, leases and other legal papers relating to the Pruyn house on North Pearl Street. The deeds, will, and indentures that trace the property back to the 1600s to the first Pruyn ownership, and continue up until it was sold in 1968. The series contains correspondence with the Whitney Company, who leased the house to use as part of their store from 1921 until 1968. The series documents the history and bankruptcy of the Whitney Co., and the subsequent sale of the property to New York State.
