1894-1905

1 box, 20 items

Series I. Correspondence, 1894-1905

June 2000

Biographical Note

William B. Wemple, a clerk in the State Comptroller's Office from 1892-1905, conducted genealogical research on the Wemple family. Wemple was an Albany resident until 1905 at which time he moved to New York City.

Scope and Content Note

The Wemple Family Genealogical Papers span the period from 1894-1905 and primarily contain documents relating to the Wemple and Louck families. The collection consists of one series: Correspondence, 1894-1905. The papers were acquired as a purchase in the year 2000.

Series I. Correspondence, 1894-1905 consists of letters exchanged between William B. Wemple, Wemple family members throughout the United States, and other individuals. Wemple's correspondence is restricted solely to genealogical information. Besides drawing upon the resources of far-flung Wemple family members, Wemple often wrote to police chiefs and postmasters inquiring about the possible presence of Wemples in the officials' districts. The correspondence is limited to matters of genealogy and contains very little in the way of family anecdotes. Reply envelopes were provided by Wemple and correspondents often replied directly upon his letter.

This finding aid was prepared by Caleb Derven.
