READING ANCIENT LIVES: TRANSLATING HIEROGLYPHS LECTURE WITH EGYPTOLOGIST JOYCE HAYNES

Sunday, December 8, 2013 at 2PM

Part of the GE Presents: The Mystery of the Albany Mummies Lecture Series

ALBANY, NY— On Sunday, December 8, 2013, Ms. Joyce Haynes, consulting Egyptologist will present a lecture in conjunction with the GE Presents: The Mystery of the Albany Mummies exhibition. Haynes will share her fascinating investigation into the hieroglyphs and illustrated panels on the coffin, mummy board, and lid of the Albany Institute of History & Art's featured mummy, Ankhefenmut. By reading the hieroglyphs and decoding the illustrations, she has been able to tell the Albany Institute who Ankhefenmut was, what he did in his lifetime, and how he prepared for the afterlife. The lecture will take place at the Albany Institute at 2PM and is free with museum admission.

GE Presents: The Mystery of the Albany Mummies Lecture Series features archaeologists, curators, and scholars from around the world who will share their insights into ancient Egyptian life, art, and funerary practices, as well as recent scientific revelations about the Albany Mummies. This new information includes CT scans and X-rays done by Albany Medical Center in 2012. Some upcoming speakers for 2014 are listed below:

- ❖ Bob Brier, Senior Research Fellow at Long Island University, C.W. Post Campus
Ankhefenmut: From Temple to Museum
Sunday, January 12, 2014
- ❖ Lanny Bell, Associate Professor Emeritus of Egyptology at the University of Chicago and Visiting Researcher in Egyptology at Brown University

GE Presents: The Mystery of the Albany Mummies lecture series will be held at the Albany Institute of History & Art, located at 125 Washington Avenue in Albany, New York. GE Presents: The Mystery of the Albany Mummies exhibition runs from September 21, 2013 through June 8, 2014.

GE Presents: The Mystery of the Albany Mummies is the largest exhibition on Ancient Egypt ever presented in New York's Capital Region. Art and artifacts from around the world, combined with advanced medical technologies help unravel the mystery of the Albany Mummies. Acquired directly from the Cairo Museum in 1909, the Albany Institute's mummies have kept secrets that only recently have been revealed. Visit the exhibition to discover how new research, new technologies, and a team of experts have helped uncover their hidden stories. Learn about their lives and the ancient practice of mummification, all at the Albany Institute of History & Art.

- From Cairo to Albany highlights the 1909 acquisition of the two mummies and their coffins from the Cairo Museum.
- Preparing for the Afterlife examines the science of mummification through interactive stations and shows the results of new CT scans and x-rays taken at Albany Medical Center.
- Ankhefenmut and His World explores the daily life and culture of ancient Egypt during the 21st Dynasty.
- Egyptomania will showcase our ongoing fascination with ancient Egypt.

Interactive stations include: How to Make a Mummy, Pharaoh for a Day, Learn Hieroglyphs, and more!

Family Festivals, Art for All activities, and an International Lecture Series will be offered.

A special Museum Shop will offer Egyptian-themed items.

The museum is open Wednesday-Saturday 10AM-5PM, Thursdays until 8PM and Sunday Noon-5PM. On Tuesdays, the museum is open to registered groups only. The museum is closed on Mondays and major holidays. Admission is FREE for Albany Institute members; $10/adults; $8/seniors and students with ID; $6/children 6-12; FREE/children under 6.
