

Did you notice the faces? Some of the faces are more 'realistic' while others are what we would call stylized, meaning its features can be symbolic and are not realistic. For example, the Egyptian statues are very symmetrical to symbolize perfection and closeness to the gods.

Draw! yourself as a statue. What do you want your statue to say about you? Where would you want the statue to be shown?

Coffin Lid of Ankhnesneferibre.
Dynasty 18, 1400-1250 BCE. Gilded Wood.
Kunsthistorisches, Vienna.

Head of a Man.
18th Dynasty 1400-1292 BCE. Granite.
Height 6 3/4 in. Albany Institute of History and Art.
Gift of Heinrich Medicus.

Charles Calverley (American, b. 1833).
Charles Calverley Self-Portrait. 1892. Bronze.
Height 26". Gift of Charles Calverley.